

Bangkok Airways awarded World's Best Regional Airline (2nd Place) and Best Regional Airline in Asia by Skytrax

Bangkok / 17 June 2015 - Bangkok Airways Public Company Limited has recently been awarded World's Best Regional Airline (2nd Place) and Best Regional Airline in Asia 2015 from Skytrax. The awards involved 18.9 million passengers from 110 countries around the world voting for their favorite travel experiences.

Mr. Puttipong Prasarttong-Osoth, President of Bangkok Airways said, "I and all staffs of Bangkok Airways would like to express our genuine appreciation to those who cast their votes for us. It is such an honor to be recognized and voted to be in the second place in the category of World's Best Regional Airline and the first in the Best Regional Airline in Asia category. These results show that the hard work and dedication from both front-line and back of the house staff have paid off. Bangkok Airways always strives to improve our services in order to enhance passengers travel experience as well as to emphasize our position as Asia's Boutique Airline."

World Airline Awards 2015, organized by Skytrax, is the most prestigious accolade in the world airline industry. Travelers from over 110 countries take part each year in the world's largest airline passenger satisfaction survey to decide the award winners.
